NEW SONGS BY LOCAL MUSICIANS

Two new songs by local composers, Mrs. Susie Kelley Dean and Mr. C. J. Bryan, made their appearance this week. Both are in waltz (3-4) time and are tuneful selections of more than usual merit. One of them, "On St. Andrews Bay," has both a ukulele arrangement and violin obbligato, while the other, "In My Aeroplane (That's Built for Two)," has only the popular ukulele arrangement in addition to the words and music.

The melodies are by Mr. Bryan, while the words and arrangement were supplied by Mrs. Dean. Both Mrs. Dean and Mr. Bryan are prominent in local musical circles, and their friends and the public await with interest other compositions by them, several of which, it is understood, are now in process of composition.

"On St. Andrews Bay" had its first public rendition since published at the Dixie-Sherman dining room on Wednesday night, when it was sung by Mrs. Geo. Mikel and was flatteringly received by those present.

Copies of either of the songs may be purchased from C. J. Bryan, or Bryan - Dean Music Co., of this city.
